

2010 – 2011 Qabats Volunteer Positions

Workshop leader (24 volunteer positions):

This year there are 3 rotations that are 5 weeks long. Becky D'Angelo-Veitch will begin each rotation with a presentation of the story to the whole group followed by 4 weeks of workshops led by volunteers. We believe this will make workshops a better learning experience for our kids, and easier to lead as the kids will have a basic understanding of the story.

Themes for 2011/2012 are:

Rotation 1: Kenya and the Church in Africa (10/5, 12, 19, 26 & 11/2)

Rotation 2: Wonderful Worship (11/9, 11/16, 11/30, 12/7 & 14)

On 12/21 there will be the nativity rehearsal, in place of Qabats. There will be no Qabats on 12/28 & 1/4, and a "fun nite" on 1/11)

Rotation 3: Noah's Ark (1/18, 25, 2/1, 8 & 15)

Full musical rehearsals begin on February 29, following winter break.

Workshops tie into a central Bible story that is explored in a variety of different ways, such as: arts & crafts, Bible skills & games, drama or audio-visual/computers. Volunteers are encouraged to bring their own skills and ideas to our workshops. However, you are also encouraged to contact a Qabats leader for ideas and support. For every theme, we need 8 teachers (2 per workshop). Volunteers who choose to serve as workshop leaders are asked to conduct two workshops per program year. Generally, the time commitment will be 5:15 – 7:40 pm.

Table Parent (14 volunteer positions):

The table parent commitment is an every week commitment, but table parents are only required to be present from 6:00-7:30 pm. This involves being a friendly face, assisting the children during dinner and managing dinnertime behavior. Each dinner table has one permanent table parent and six kids. In addition to dinnertime supervision, table parents are asked to assist with setting and clearing tables.
