Seeking the Light

It is easy to believe in death-dealing powers, for that is what we witness in the world every day. It is much harder to imagine the power of love that conquers death.

The Worship of God
Third Sunday After Pentacost

June 5, 2016

8:30am and 10:45am

Preparation for Worship

We come to worship from a busy and noisy world. As we prepare to offer ourselves in praise and adoration of God, it is important that we step back from our preoccupations and focus our thoughts on God. We ask that you please silence all electronic devices. As the music begins this morning, please take time to become more aware of the continuing presence of God.

PRAYER
(UNISON)

Merciful God, you pardon all who truly repent and turn to you. We humbly confess our sins and ask your mercy. We have not loved you with a pure heart, nor have we loved our neighbors as ourselves. Have mercy on us, O God, in your loving-kindness. In your great compassion, cleanse us from our sin. Create in us a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within us. Do not cast us from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from us. Restore to us the joy of your salvation and sustain us with your bountiful Spirit through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

ANTHEM "I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes" Leo Sowerby
Riki Connaughton, mezzo-soprano

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.
He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: He that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, He that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper; thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil, He shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even forevermore. Amen.

We believe in God:

who has created and is creating,
who has come in Jesus, the word made flesh,
to reconcile and make new,
who works in us and others by the Spirit.

We Trust in God.

We are called to be the church:

to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to seek justice and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen,
our judge and our hope.

In life, in death, in life beyond death,
God is with us. We are not alone.

Thanks be to God.

LEADER: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

PEOPLE: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

SANCTUS

(organ intro) Richard Proulx

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san-na in the high-est. Ho-san-na in the high-est. Blest is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est, Ho-san-na in the high-est.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Lord's Supper this morning will be celebrated by the ancient practice of "intinction," from the Latin "to dip." At the time of communion, ushers will invite you to come forward to the lower chancel via the center and side aisles. Take a piece of bread from the server, dip it in the cup which contains grape juice, and partake as you are served. Gluten-free bread is available in the Chapel (station to the right of center) and in the Sanctuary at a clearly marked station under the Meigs Street balcony. You may return to your seats via the side aisles. If moving to the communion table is difficult for you, a team of servers will come to you to serve the communion elements.

SHARING THE BREAD AND CUP

As persons come forward to receive communion, all are invited to join in singing the following hymns:

503: Lord, We Have Come at Your Invitation

494: Jesus, Thou Joy of Loving Hearts

500: Be Known to Us in Breaking Bread

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

(UNISON)

We thank you that our souls have been fed by your word, O God, and our bodies by the bread of life and the cup of the new covenant. Now send us into the world to give witness to your love, made known to us in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MINISTRY, SERVICE, AND FELLOWSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Sunday Seminar and Growing in the Word

Today at 9:30am in Johnston Hall
Religion, Food, and Eating in North America

led by Nora Rubel, Associate Professor of Religion at University of Rochester
It should come as little surprise that food is a useful lens through which to examine religion. Da Vinci's image of Jesus dining with his disciples in the Last Supper is one of the most famous paintings in history, and many Christians continue to reenact that graceful meal weekly, some with wafers and wine, some with Wonder Bread and Welch's Grape Juice. Nora Rubel will discuss her research on the intersection of religion and food.

Martha Langford will lead the service on Wednesday, June 8. Join us in the Chapel at 6:00pm.

The following Tuesday, June 14, Caroline Robinson will play a varied program utilizing both the Craighead-Saunders organ in the rear gallery, and the 19th century Hook & Hastings instrument located at the front of the church. These free programs begin at 12:10pm, and last approximately 25 – 30 minutes. Come and enjoy a musical treat at lunchtime!

News from the Third Church Library

The library is looking for donations to replace a few books from our collection that are either missing or damaged. If you would like to donate one of these books to the library, check out our new wish list on Amazon.com where you may purchase a book and have it sent to the library.

From the Amazon home page, go to the "Lists" drop down menu. Click "Find a List or Registry" then search for "Third Church Library". In the coming months we will add more books to the wish list that would be welcome additions to our collection.

About Our Worship Books Available

For the past few years the Worship, Music and Arts Committee has been providing newsletter columns, authored by Jeanne Fisher, about worship here at Third Presbyterian Church. Now these columns have been compiled into a booklet that will be offered for sale at coffee hour. The book examines the sacraments, the liturgical year and our pattern of worship. Stop by the table at coffee hour to see a sample, and order your own copy.
