Preparation for Worship

We come to worship from a busy and noisy world. As we prepare to offer ourselves in praise and adoration of God, it is important that we step back from our preoccupations and focus our thoughts on God. We ask that you please silence all electronic devices. As the music begins, please take time to become more aware of the continuing presence of God.

Please stand as you are able, in body or in spirit.*

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from a Brief Statement of Faith, Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

In life and in death we belong to God. Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel, whom alone we worship and serve.

In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit, we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks and to live holy and joyful lives, even as we watch for God's new heaven and new earth, praying, "Come, Lord Jesus!"

With believers in every time and place, we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

REDEDICATION of COPELAND CHIME and BELL TOWER

Eternal God, our praises join with the songs of heavenly choirs and the music of the universe. May these bells proclaim good news to all who hear them, as with heart and voice we sing our praises to glorify your name. Amen.

THE PRAYERS of the PEOPLE and THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

POSTLUDE "Fanfare"

Jacques Lemmens

Immediately following today's postlude, we invite all to gather on the East Avenue lawn near the bell tower to hear the newly rededicated Copeland Chime ring with our recently refurbished Whitechapel handbells. Together they will play a special setting of "All Creatures of Our God and King," arranged specifically for this dedication by Cecil Buchinger.

Music from the bell tower will continue during the Big Lunch celebration.

The chancel flowers this morning are given in loving memory of Karen Anne Faul, from her family.

The memorial prayer candle is lit in gratitude for Third Church's 190th Anniversary.

The Message of the Bells

"The bells themselves are the best of preachers;
Their brazen lips are learned teachers,
From their pulpits of stone in the upper air,
Sounding aloft without crack or flaw,
Shriller than trumpets under the law,
Now a sermon and now a prayer.
The clangorous hammer is the tongue,
This way, that way, beaten and swung,
That from mouth of brass, as from mouth of gold,
May be taught the Testaments, New and Old."

From the Copeland Chime Dedication Program, Sunday, October 9, 1927

James P. Chisholm Stained Glass Restoration Fund Update

Thank you to everyone who made a gift to the Chisholm Fund in its inaugural year. We surpassed the 2018 goal, which will allow us to undertake a complete restoration of the Nativity window (second from the narthex on the Arnold Park side).

Your generosity is a wonderful tribute to the memory of Jim Chisholm, and a gift to the congregation, which will be able to enjoy our beautiful windows for years to come.

Thanks to Chancel Choir and Retirement

Today marks the last Sunday on which the Chancel Choir will sing for this program year. They will resume rehearsals and regular Sunday worship leadership on Rally Day. We offer grateful thanks for their exemplary dedication and for their inspired and inspiring musical leadership in our worship throughout the year. We are all enriched, and God is glorified, through their gifts so freely offered.

This morning we also recognize Riki Connaughton, who is retiring as Alto Soloist and Section Leader. This month marks 30 years of wonderful service to the choir and congregation of Third Church! We are so grateful for the gifts of musical leadership that Riki has brought to her work. The good news is that she plans to continue singing with the choir in the fall, in a volunteer capacity. Thank you, Riki!

Name Tags

The Membership and Evangelism Committee is happy to announce that we will be taking orders for Third Presbyterian Church member name tags. This is a voluntary effort – we hope that many of you will obtain a name tag to help us get to know our congregation and build connections. On Sundays after worship throughout the month of June, including on June 10 during the Big Lunch, orders for name tags will be taken. The cost of a name tag is $10.50 and needs to be paid for at the time your order is placed by cash, check or credit card. We will ask that you keep your name tag with your own personal belongings; we do not plan to provide a storage area for them at the church. Please contact any of the following committee members if you have questions.

Summer Sizzle Volunteers Needed – Keep the Wheels Turning!

This summer, Summer Sizzle will be running a seven week summer program entitled Wilson Wondercamp.

Located in Wilson Commencement Park, this camp will run on Mondays and Thursdays, July 2 to August 16, 10:00am to 4:00pm and will give kids an opportunity to engage in nature activities, music workshops, dance classes and more.

We need your help! Between 6 and 15 chaperones/counselors will be needed to make this camp run smoothly. The minimum commitment required is three out of the seven weeks, with specific days of the week a possibility.

If you are interested, please contact Melanie Jones at artsenrichmentdirector@aol.com or 347-668-6181. After June 8, volunteers will be welcomed on a space available basis.

Additionally, while many sites are willing to give us access to their on-site educational and cultural programming at zero to reduced fees, lack of transportation remains a significant barrier for these families.

Our goal is raise $5,000 to fund transportation for educational excursions.

Look for our special table during the Big Lunch today and June 17. Your contribution of any amount can be sent to the church office. Please write Summer Sizzle Fill the Bus in the memo line.

Meals With a Meaning – October 20

Want to get to know other church members on a more meaningful level? Then join us this fall for “Meals With a Meaning.” There is no set cost for this event. Instead, each guest is asked to consider what he or she would spend on a typical evening out to dinner. Contributions go to the Third Church operating budget. Gatherings are sized to fit each volunteer’s table. Meals need not be expensive or fancy, but focus on creativity and personal cooking preferences with a focus on fun! If you’ve enjoyed this event in the past, consider hosting this year. If you are new to Third Church since our last event, we especially look forward to your participation and getting to know you better. Mark your calendars for Saturday, October 20. Then contact committee chairs to sign up as a host or a guest. Contact Beth Aten (bethfa@rochester.rr.com) or Hope Herting (mhherting@yahoo.com).

Amazon Wish List

Friends, the Third Church librarians have identified a few books that would enhance the offerings of our church library. We have added these to the library's Amazon Wish List.

If you would like to donate a book to the library, visit amazon.com, and from home page, go to the “Lists” drop down menu. Click “Find a List or Registry” then search for “Third Church Library.”

In the coming months we will add more books to the wish list that would be welcome additions to our collection. And we always gratefully accept gently used, unmarked books from your personal collection that are appropriate for the library.

New Ways to Donate Online

Donating to Third Church just got easier!

If you'd like to donate online, visit www.thirdpresbyterian.org, click on the "Give" tab on right under the banner at the top of the page, and select "Give Online."

Sunday Morning Parking

Third Church aspires to be inclusive in many ways, including for those with mobility challenges. In order for worshipers to be able to use the ramp at the Arnold Park door, we have designated the ENTIRE Arnold Park parking lot for handicap access on Sunday mornings.

We know, however, that there are more with handicap access needs than there are spaces in the Arnold Park lot. Therefore, if you do not have a blue handicap parking card, we kindly ask you not to park in the Arnold Park lot. If you are dropping someone off at the Arnold Park entrance, please continue through the driveway to our Meigs Street lot.
